All images are copyright © Shel Mosk, all rights reserved. Copyright remains with the original photographer or author, and is protected under national and international law. (For further information, please refer to <http://www.copyright.gov/help/faq/faq-general.html#what>)

To use any image, contact Shel Mosk (Photographer) in advance.

Usage rights and fees for commercial purposes (advertising, brochures, magazines, posters, books, calendars, program booklets, CD/DVD artwork, Internet, TV, etc.) must be agreed upon in advance in writing.

Images are available for non-commercial use at modest fees. Written permission must be obtained from Photographer in advance.

All images shall be credited adjacent to each image as follows: © Shel Mosk
If used on the Internet, a link to Photographer's website www.shelmosk.com shall be included adjacent to the image along with the photo credit.

Note: To ensure high quality reproduction, original digital image files or "proofs" need to be optimized in specific ways depending on how the image will be used. Let Photographer know how an image will be used so Photographer can provide an optimized file or print. For example, a digital image file for Internet use would have significantly different resolution, sharpness, color gamut, etc. than a digital image file used for various print media.

Thank you for your co-operation.
